3.—REPORT OF THE BIBLE AND MISSION BOARD.

At the last meeting of the Convention the "Board of Missions" was abolished, and so much of its work as relates to the collection of statistics, was assigned to the Bible Board—now called the "Bible and Mission Board."

As the change did not contemplate any active operations on the part of this Board in the field of Missions, its efforts, as heretofore, have been confined to its own proper department of Bible distribution; while incidental labors have been performed in the mission field, and such facts and statistics concerning missionary operations have been collected, as it was able to gather from the Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The measure of success which has attended the operations of this Board during the past year is encouraging, though we can point to no great results, we are pleased to know that something has been done; and we hope that the report of another year will be even more favorable than the present. Our Agent, Rev. W. B. Elkin, has labored in several Districts, to our entire satisfaction, and with good success

As the result of his efforts some 13 Bible Societies—auxiliary to your Board—have been organized during the year, making with those previously organized, between forty and fifty Societies in connexion with the Board, and much interest in the Bible cause has been awakened.

We regret to state that, for reasons of a personal and private nature, Bro. Elkin declines serving the Board the ensuing year. So far, however, from being dissatisfied with the work, or discouraged, he has expressed his willingness to serve us again, whenever circumstances will allow him to do so.

If it were possible to do without an agent, we would gladly dispense with the services of one, so that we might apply the whole amount of money contributed to the proper object of Bible distribution; but we do not see how this can be done. If all the societies, after being organized, would exert themselves to keep up their organization, and would remit their funds promptly to us, they themselves would be the best agents we could have; but all do not do their duty. Some societies, after a year's existence, are allowed to die out, or to decline; moneys pledged to the Board are not sent up, and so, the employment of an agent is absolutely necessary.

It may be complained of by some, that so much of the money contributed for Bible purposes, should have been applied to the payment of an agent's salary; but we judged that the money so contributed was given to the Bible cause, and that any application of it which would make the operations of the Board most efficient would meet the wishes of most of the contributors. If the work of Bible distribution is promoted, as we believe it is, by the employment of a suitable agent, we think the money expended in this way, is not a diversion of it from the object for which it was given, but is directly conducive to the success of that object.

From the Treasurer's report, it appears that the amount of money received by the Board, since our last annual report, and in hand at that time, is as follows:

Balance in hand, last report,	$533 98
Amount received during past year,	1,108 27
 Making a total of,	$1,637 25
The amount paid out, as per Treasurer's report, for the same time, is,	$1,846 65
 Leaving a balance of,	$290 60

Of the amount reported as received by your Board, a portion was sent, by the instructions of the contributors, to the Bible and Mission Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention. Besides the amount actually received by your Board, about $800 have been reported to us as subscribed by various societies, but the funds have not yet been sent up. These we hope to collect. Your Board contemplates no change in the mode of its operations.

In the department of Missions, the following amounts have been reported to us by the Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, as contributed by the State of South Carolina from the 1st of July, 1858 to 1st July, 1859:

DOMESTIC AND INDIAN MISSION BOARD.

For Domestic Missions,	$2,744 98
For Indian Missions,	1,285 56
For Coliseum Place Church, New Orleans,	1,427 35
 Making a total of,	$5,457 89

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD.

For Foreign Missions,	$4,944 18
 For Bible cause,	$283 63

The amounts severally reported by the above Boards, include what was sent to them by instruction through this Board.

The whole amount of money contributed by the State of South Carolina to the Boards of the Southern Convention, from July 1st, 1858 to July 1st, 1859, is $10,685 70.

It is proper to state that, although missionary labor did not enter into the plan of action of the Board, our agent has not confined himself within the limits of his agency proper, but of his own choice, and with the full concurrence of the Board, has labored diligently and faithfully as a missionary, in preaching, baptising visiting families, distributing books, and in the office of an evangelist generally. He reports that, since the last meeting of this body, 181 persons have been received into the churches at meetings held by him.

The number of Bibles and Testaments distributed by your Board during the year, is 750. The "Domestic and Indian Mission Board" of the Southern Convention report, that during the past year they have employed eight missionaries in the State of South Carolina, at an expense of $1,550.

Should the societies already connected with this Board contribute hereafter in the same proportion as they have already done, we shall have an annual fund of upwards of $2,000 to operate with, which, in our last report, we stated to be the least sum we thought could be raised in the whole State. With an efficient agent, and if the societies will do their duty, we confidently believe that we shall have twice that amount to report next year.

JNO. J. BRANTLY, Corresponding Secretary.

4.—REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE CHARGED WITH THE MANAGEMENT OF THE ENTZMINGER MISSIONARY FUND FOR RICHLAND DISTRICT.

Early this year, your Committee received this fund from the original Trustee, Bro. J. V. Lyles. In consequence of the intention of the Convention, as expressed in a Report at its last session, to commit this fund to the Columbia Baptist Association for management, your Committee have acted in concert with the Missionary Board of that body.

On the first of January last the Rev. A. K. Durham was elected by the Board just mentioned, as Missionary for Richland District, with the understanding that the proceeds of the Entzminger Fund should be applied to his support. Since that time he has been actively engaged in the work of the Mission—preaching every Lord's day, and Saturday before. From what we hear, your Committee believe that the Missionary is highly esteemed by those to whom he ministers, and well adapted to the field which he occupies. In the Winter and early Spring it is impossible to gather large audiences in the District named above; and hence it is that a Missionary accomplishes but little during one half of the year. But during Summer and Fall the congregations become large. The Missionary feels the stimulus. Laboring with renewed zeal, preaching with increased fervor, and praying for success with an unyielding importunity—his heart is oftentimes rejoiced by seeing the word of the Lord prosper in his hands. It is astonishing to witness the anxiety of this people to hear Baptist preaching. We are told that, though the Methodists have several laborers in this field, the people will pass by their places of worship, and in crowds walk for miles to reach a Baptist meeting-house. Our Missionary has, generally, had very large country congregations, and frequently his heart has been cheered by the tears of penitence, and the anxious inquiries of troubled souls. We ought to have four missionaries in this field—then we might meet, in some good degree, the wants of this people, and be instrumental in preparing many of them for the glories and joys of the life to come. Another missionary, the Rev. W. B. Elkin, has recently been appointed to this field by the Missionary Board of the Columbia Association. It has seemed to your Committee, and we take the liberty to make the suggestion to your body, that the Convention might accomplish something for the destitute of the State, by urging her constituents to meet more thoroughly the destitution prevailing in their respective bounds.

The fund in hand amounts to $5,934 25 The interest on this amount for six months ending July 1st, is $218 58. This is due the Missionary for services rendered, and will be handed to him at an early day.

J. TAYLOR ZEALY, Chairman.

5.—REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL AND COLPORTAGE BOARD.

The Sunday School and Colportage Board, located at Darlington, beg leave to offer the following annual report:

In the early part of the Summer the Board published and sent out circulars to the various churches throughout the State, asking for information in regard to the number and condition of Sabbath Schools among them, and, also, in regard to the work being done in the Colportage department. They have succeeded in gathering the subjoined facts:—In the 44 schools heard from, there are 392 teachers, 2,302 scholars among the whites; and among the colored population there are 9 schools, with 64 teachers, and 894 scholars. From the above number of scholars there have been, during the past year, 73 conversions. These were from among the whites, no report having been made on this point in regard to the blacks. There are in the respective libraries of these schools, 10,485 volumes.

It will be perceived that the above statement is very limited, only a few of the churches having been heard from.

The Board regard it as of vast importance to ascertain the amount of labor which is being bestowed upon this particular enterprise throughout the State; and as the best means of doing this, they would recommend the appointment of an agent, whose duty it shall be to visit every Association and Church in the State, and establish schools where they do not already exist, and where they do, to endeavor to increase the interest felt in them, if possible, until there shall be no church within our borders without a Sabbath School in successful operation. Such an agent might do a great work, also, in the furtherance of the interests of the Colportage system, which your Board are sorry to say, from the information received in regard to this subject, seems to be almost entirely neglected. One or two Associations have been mentioned as having entered into this work, but nothing has been said as to the extent or success of their operations.

In the Association in which your Board is located, a Colporteur has been annually employed for the last fifteen years or more, whose labors have been crowned with more than ordinary success. He has received a salary of $200 in addition to the amount of 20 per cent. on the sales of all books disposed of by him. Your Board are of the opinion that without a specific salary, nothing can be done with certainty in this work.

In conclusion, your Board would only say, that they are deeply impressed with the great importance of the duty assigned them by the Convention, and will use their utmost endeavors to discharge it. They hope, with the aid of the Churches, so to develop the wants of the denomination in reference to these interesting departments of Christian labor, and the best means of supplying them, as hereafter to feel that they have not worked in vain.

GEO. B. BEALER, Corresponding Secretary.

6.—REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MINUTES AND LETTERS OF CORRESPONDING BODIES.

The Committee on Communications from Corresponding Bodies, beg leave to report, that the only communication of the kind which has come into their hands, is the minutes of the Baptist Convention of the State of Georgia, for the present year.

It is gratifying to see the evidence which these minutes furnish of the substantial progress of the Baptist cause in our sister State. The number of members in the Baptist Churches in the State, exclusive of such members in border churches, as have their residence in other States, is 90,303. Three male, and several female, colleges, are "in successful operation."

"Mercer University," the most prominent among these educational establishments, is now enjoying a larger patronage than ever. With real estate valued at $80,000, it has an endowment of $125,000, and measures are in progress for the increase of this endowment.

The Convention is supporting quite a number of young men who are preparing for the ministry, and have been giving aid to sons of two of their deceased ministers. and have made donations of books to some thirteen indigent ministers.

The claims of Missions, both Domestic and Foreign, are receiving earnest attention. The report on the subject of Missions is a stirring appeal, prepared by the hand of a man of God, deeply loved in South Carolina—the field of his earlier labors—as he is in Georgia, our venerable brother Mallary.

It is to the honor of our Georgia brethren, that their action inaugurated the movement of the Southern Baptist Convention, which we trust will make the current year an era memorable for a greatly increased contribution of Southern Baptists to this great and holy cause.

There are other noticeable features in this interesting document, among which is the increased circulation and efficiency of their Denominational organ—the "Christian Index."

J. C. FURMAN, Chairman Committee.

7.—REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DECEASED MINISTERS.

The Committee on Deceased Ministers beg leave to present the following report: That since the last meeting of this body, seven of its ministers have been called to their final reward. We have only been able, however, to procure a very short and imperfect sketch of some of them. As to others, we are only able to announce their names, their residence, and that they are no more numbered with us on earth

The following have been reported to us, as having gone the way of all the earth—viz. Thomas Curtis, D. D., James Kay, Thos. Lee, N. W. Walker, J. H. Hill, Casper Staly, and J. A. Backus.

The painful loss of the first named in this list, Dr. Curtis, of Limestone Springs, S. C., has been not only deeply felt by this Convention, of which he was an able and efficient member for many years, but has filled the hearts of very many with profound regret and deep sorrow throughout the States of this Union. He was a native of the city of London, but for many of the last years of his life, was a resident citizen of South Carolina. Dr. Curtis was extensively known, and preached the gospel of the blessed God, with great acceptance and eminent ability wherever he went. As an intellectual and literary man, he ranked among the first of the age in which we live; as an expounder of the Word of God he was seldom equalled; and was everywhere justly regarded an able “minister of the New Testament of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.”

Dr. Curtis was a Christian gentleman of polished manners, and was eminently fitted for the social circles; being a man of deep and profound piety, his conversations were always enriched with useful and interesting religious instructions.

The cause of Education found in him a fast friend, and an able advocate. The founding of the justly celebrated Female High School, at Limestone Springs, S. C., was the crowning work of his life,

This Institution has reflected much to his credit as a man of energy and forecast, and now stands out in bold relief, a noble monument to his memory. In the melancholy event which deprives us of the eminent services of our brother, his immediate family, the community in which he resided, the church of which he was the Pastor, our general Zion, and this Convention, have sustained an irreparable loss—but we mourn “not as those without hope,” for we feel assured that our Father in Heaven has granted unto him an “abundant entrance” into a happier and more glorious field of usefulness and of greatness.

In the Saluda Association Brother James Kay has been called from his labors on earth to his reward in Heaven. Brother Kay labored in the ministry of the Word nearly thirty years, and although he was not favored with a liberal education, yet was he a zealous and useful minister, having the confidence of his brethren and of all who knew him. He lived to an advanced age, and died in the faith of the gospel and in the hope of a blessed immortality.

Rev. C. Staley was a native of Orangeburg District, S. C. As a man he was just and upright in all his intercourse with mankind. As a Christian, he adorned the doctrine of God his Saviour in all things. A faithful and laborious minister of the New Testament for some forty years, maintaining to his end an unblemished Christian character.

J. G. LANDRUM, Chairman.

8.—REPORT OF THE EDUCATION BOARD.

The Education Board beg leave to submit the following report: The success of this Board during the last year has not quite equalled the sanguine expectations of some of its members; yet your Board are encouraged to believe that there are indications of future success.

The Board re-organized in December last, and resolved to make application to all the churches of the State for their co-operation and aid in this work. Nearly five hundred circulars were sent to the Pastors and Clerks of the churches, requesting them to lay this object before their respective churches, and solicit contributions of one cent a week from each member for this object, and forward the amount thus raised to the Treasurer of this Board, by the first of May. Some twenty churches have responded to this call, expressing their cordial sympathy with our effort, and promising their co-operation.

A large number, however, whose support we confidently expected, have declined a response to our call. It is the purpose of the Board to renew these applications until we can obtain some definite response.

The Treasurer's report shows that he has received some $259 20.

As soon as the Treasury would justify it the Board proceeded to the appointment of a beneficiary. They have appointed Brother L. Golden, who has, for several years, been prosecuting his studies at the Furman University, much to his own credit, and to the satisfaction of the Faculty. Brother Golden was appointed last year, by the Board of Trustees, a beneficiary of the McBryde Fund, but that fund has yielded him no support.

There are other worthy young men now needing aid, and we trust that their numbers will increase as our means increase; that the churches will see to it that those who have suitable gifts shall be encouraged to devote themselves to the work of the ministry, and that, in coming years, we shall be able to report a large number of those who are sustained by the liberality of those churches, especially, which have no beneficiary of their own.

This is not the place to enlarge upon the importance of ministerial education, or upon the duty of contributing our substance to promote this object. Ministers should be men of the best and largest influence in the community in which they move. Whatever, therefore, will enlarge this sphere of influence, and still keep it pure, must be desirable in the qualifications of a minister. Hence there should be a large share of practical common sense, that will command respect from all classes; a well cultivated and richly stored understanding, such as a proper education will secure. It is as vain to suppose, that God will supply any of those deficiencies in the minds of any whom he calls, as that he will feed and clothe their families, plant their fields with grain, or fill their barns with plenty, without the use of the ordinary means and industry.

The Board would respectfully urge the claims of education upon the attention of the members of this convention, and request them to lay this object before their respective churches and associations, commending our object, and inviting their co-operation.

The Board believe that great care and precaution are necessary to prevent the funds from being expended upon unworthy beneficiaries. Nothing, perhaps, would sooner destroy the confidence of the churches in the efficiency of the Board, than inattention to this matter. The Board therefore recommend:

1st. That every applicant for its aid, be required to furnish a certificate from the church of which he is a member, of his good standing and consistent piety, that he possesses gifts for the work of the ministry, and that they approve of his devoting himself to this work, and that he is in need of the aid of this Board.

2d. That the aid afforded by this Board be confined to students prosecuting their studies, either in the Furman University, or in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

3d. That the applicant be required to submit to an examination by the Faculty of the Institution which he proposes to enter, in reference to his Christian experience, call to the ministry, views of gospel truth and fitness for the work of the ministry.

4th. That each beneficiary be required to furnish, as often as twice a year, a certificate from the Faculty of the Institution, testifying to his correct moral and christian deportment, his diligent and successful application to study, and recommending him to the continuance of the support of this Board.

5th. That the applicant be required to prosecute such a course of study as this Board may direct, and which he is not to discontinue, without the consent of the Board.

6th. That the applicant be required to give a bond in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the refunding of the entire amount he may have received from the Board, with interest thereon, in case he shall terminate his course of study, (without the consent of the Board,) or abandon the work of the ministry within five years after leaving the Institution.

7th. That the appropriations for each beneficiary be, as far as practicable, according to his necessities; but that the appropriation to a single beneficiary shall in no case exceed $250 a year; and that in ordinary cases it be limited to $200 a year.

8th. That beneficiaries be expected in all cases, to do what they can for their support, by aid from their churches or immediate friends, and by their own industry.

In reference to those churches, associations and benevolent societies, which are in the habit of sustaining their own beneficiaries, this Board would recommend that the same course be continued, with the simple request that such bodies report annually to the Secretary of this Board, the names of their beneficiaries, and the aid afforded to each. This is particularly desirable as a matter of statistical information, that all may know what is done for ministerial education in this State; and that there may be harmony of action between those bodies and this Board. The following statement will show what has been done for the cause of education during the past year, at least, so far as the Secretary has been able to ascertain the facts.

There are now thirteen young men prosecuting their studies at the University, with special reference to the work of the ministry. Of these, it is believed, that not more than one or two, if any, have the means of sustaining themselves.

The Barnwell Association reports an education fund of $204 35, with no beneficiary.

The Charleston Association sustains two beneficiaries, by an appropriation of $200 to each.

The Edisto and the Edgefield Associations unite in sustaining one beneficiary with an appropriation of $150 each.

The Reedy River Association sustains one with an appropriation of $200.

The Savannah River Association sustains one, with an appropriation of about $250.

The Saluda Association sustains one, with an appropriation of $220.

Tyger River Association has no beneficiary this year.

The Welsh Neck Association sustains one, with an appropriation of $200.

The Salem Association sustains two beneficiaries, with an appropriation to each, of about $225.

The Juvenile Female Missionary and Education Society, of Charleston, sustains one beneficiary.

Twenty brethren of the Savannah River Association sustains one beneficiary with $250.

In conclusion, we commend the cause of ministerial education to the earnest and prayerful consideration of the denomination, throughout the State, and we hope that every church which may receive our next circular, will make some reply to our call.

Very respectfully submitted,

C. H. JUDSON, Cor. Secretary.

August 1st, 1859.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

THOS. B. ROBERTS, Treas'r, in account with State Con. Bayt. Den. in S. C.

Cr. 2 DR.

CONSTITUTION.

REVISED AND AMENDED.

WE, the representatives of the constituent bodies of the State Convention of the Baptist Denomination in South Carolina, do agree upon the following Articles, as forming the annexed constitution of the Convention, and the basis of the union :

ARTICLE I.

This body shall be styled the State Convention of the Baptist Denomination in South Carolina.

ARTICLE II.

The grand objects of this Convention shall be: The promotion of religious education, and particularly that of pious young men designed for the Gospel ministry; the spread of the Gospel by Foreign, Domestic, and State Missionary operations; by the circulation of the sacred Scriptures; and by such means as may be devised from time to time, for the promotion of the interests of Education, Publication, and the Sunday School system—to bring the Baptist Churches in this State into closer union—to harmonize their views and feelings in things spiritual, by conferring together on all matters of interests respecting the Kingdom of God—and in general to direct and concentrate their efforts in such measures as may, in their opinion, tend to promote the glory of God and the spread of evangelical knowledge in the earth. The Convention, though not unwilling to give advice in cases of difficulty, yet will claim to itself no power to lord it over God's heritage, believing that the right of Government, under Christ, is vested in the Churches themselves.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of Delegates from the several Baptist Associations in this State who may approve of the measures here adopted; and of Representatives from other religious bodies of the Baptist connexion, concerned in the promotion of the same objects with the Convention; the number of Delegates and Representatives bearing always a just proportion to the number of their constituents. The attending Delegates shall be a quorum to do business. The appointment of these Delegates shall be made annually or biennially, as the Convention shall determine to hold its meeting; and a certificate of their appointment shall be exhibited to the Convention. The members of the Board of Agents shall be ex-officio members of the new Convention.

ARTICLE IV.

The Convention shall have a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. It shall also have a Board of Agents for the transaction of business during its recess, consisting of eight members—the Treasurer ex-officio being one of them—any three of whom duly convened, shall be a quorum. The duties severally assigned to the officers of similar institutions shall devolve on those of this body, according to their rank and character in the Convention and in the Board. The Board, as Agents, shall be adequate to the performance of all necessary business which may occur during the recess of the Convention. Both Officers and Agents shall hold their station—unless forfeited by unrighteous conduct—till a new election. The Board shall have the power to fill vacancies in their own body.

ARTICLE V.

The support of an Institution of learning in this State shall be considered as a primary object. One of the designs of this Institution is to assist those who, in the judgment of their churches, are called to preach the Gospel, that they may "study to show themselves workmen approved unto God, that need not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." Those of this character who need pecuniary aid, may receive it, at the discretion of the Convention, from funds appropriated to this object. The government of this Institution shall be committed to a Board of Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at the end of every fourth year.

ARTICLE VI.

Ministers of the Gospel in any of our churches needing aid in the more necessary part of learning, and unable to attend at the Institution, may be furnished with a supply of the most useful books, from the general fund for education purposes.

ARTICLE VII.

Although contributions in money shall not be considered requisite to entitle to a representation in the Convention, yet this body will receive such contributions from any of its constituent bodies that may wish to aid in the support of missionary service among the destitute, either at home or abroad; of the education of pious young men who may be approved by the churches to which they belong, as called of God to preach the Gospel; or any other scheme of benevolence tending to the increase of evangelical and useful knowledge, or of vital, practical religion. And the right of conducting the business of the fund will be considered as vested exclusively in the representative of bodies which do regularly contribute. In the election of the Board of Trustees of Furman University, the vote shall be cast only by the representatives of the larger bodies, viz: Associations—which enter into the constituency of the Convention. The extent of this right on the part of each Association, shall be measured by the amount it may have contributed to the vested funds of the Convention, whether this contribution shall have been made directly by the donation of churches or of individuals within its limits; and the contribution of each sum of one thousand dollars shall give the contributing body the right to cast one vote. All moneys specially appropriated shall be sacredly applied to the object designated; but where any contributions or bequests are made without any specific designation, discretion in their application shall be exercised by the Convention or its Board of Agents.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Treasurer shall take charge of all moneys and specialties belonging to the Convention, and keep separate accounts of the amounts contributed for different objects, and render regular accounts of them to the Convention at its stated meetings, and, also, to the Board, when called upon to do so. He shall be elected by the Convention at its stated meeting, and shall hold his office until the last day of the next meeting, and until another shall be elected and give bond and enter upon the duties of his office. For the faithful discharge of his trust he shall give bond and security to the Convention, in such sum of money as they shall from time to time direct. He shall pay no money out of the funds but by the order of the Convention or Board, signed by the presiding officer. And should the said office become vacant by death, resignation or removal, the said vacancy shall be filled by an election by the Board of Agents, and the person so elected by the Board shall hold his office until the next stated meeting of the Convention, and until another shall be elected, give bond and security, and enter upon the duties of his office. And the Treasurer so elected shall give bond, and do all the duties required, and in the same manner as if elected by the Convention.

ARTICLE IX.

The Convention may use its discretion in having either an annual or biennial meeting. But in cases of important concern, and especially when the arrangement for a biennial session has been made, the President may, at the instance of the Board, call an earlier meeting.

ARTICLE X.

Any alteration which experience may prove to be necessary, may be made in these Rules, by the concurring vote of two-thirds of the members present at an annual or biennial meeting.

RULES FOR THE TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS.

3. The Minutes of the preceding day shall be read, to the end that mistakes, if any shall have been made, may be corrected.

4. Persons invited to seats in Convention shall have the privilege of speaking in debate, but not of voting.

5. The members of Convention shall retain their seats, preserve silence, and refrain from conversation during the reading of the Minutes, while the presiding officer is putting a question, or when any member is speaking in debate.

After he shall have spoken, those who had risen with him shall be heard in the order of their rising, in priority of all others, should they still desire to be heard.

10. When a member shall be called to order, he shall sit down until the Chair determines whether he is in order or not. An appeal, however, may be made from the decision of the Chair to the Convention.

Neither of these motions, with the exception of that to adjourn, after being decided, shall be allowed again on the same day upon the same question.

13. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when a question is actually put, and the Convention is engaged in voting.

14. If the question for debate contain several points, it may be divided at the request of any member.

15. In filling up blanks, the largest sum and the longest time shall be first put.

16. When the question has been once made, and the vote taken, it shall be in order for any member in the majority to move for its re-consideration.

17. All questions shall be put by the President, and the members shall respectively signify their assent by answering "Yea," and their dissent by answering "No." If the President, or any member, shall not be satisfied that the decision expressed by the ayes and noes is certainly ascertained, the President shall request those who voted in the affirmative to rise and stand until they shall be counted. After these shall be seated, the President shall request those who voted in the negative to rise and stand till they shall be counted. In the event of an equal decision, the President shall have the casting vote.

18. When the President shall desire to be heard in debate, or to be temporarily absent, the Chair shall be taken by the Vice President; or, in case of his absence, by some member named by the President, until he shall resume his seat.
